

China Resources International Logistics Centre in Hong Kong has been honored to have achieved dual certifications in both LEED and WELL. Such an accomplishment is exceptionally rare within Hong Kong's industry landscape.

We regard this as a meaningful step forward in the fields of sustainable development and healthy building practices, and we look forward to collaborating with our peers to jointly advance the industry toward a more efficient and human-centric future.

