왜 홍콩인가?

Why Hong Kong?

Benefits of establishing a Hong Kong corporation

① Simple Establishment Procedures

The establishment process is simple, so it can be established in one day. When a corporation is established, it does not require payment of capital, so there is no financial burden.

② Free deposit and Withdrawal

There is no foreign exchange management law, so free deposit and withdrawal is possible through Internet banking regardless of the size of the funds.

③ Low Tax rates Worldwide

It is possible to reduce taxes using the difference in tax rates between countries by maintaining the corporate tax of 16.5%. Dividend tax, transfer income tax, inheritance tax, interest income tax, etc. are not taxed other than corporate tax.

If the corporation's net income is less than HKD2,000,000 after April 1, 2018, only 8.25% of the corporate tax will be applied.

④ Minimizing fixed cost burden

After the establishment of the corporation, all four government-imposed operations by the Hong Kong government can be carried out through agency services, and bank transactions can be managed through Internet banking, so there is no need to operate separate offices or manpower.

⑤ Tax exemptions for Offshore-Income

If the source of revenue is overseas, it is considered an offshore income and you can apply for tax exemption. However, in order to apply for duty-free, you need to prepare in advance, such as securing data on the basis of income.

Tax-saving measures through Hong Kong corporations

① Tax reduction through price adjustment

The benefits of Hong Kong's low tax rate allow tax savings by attributing most of the profits to Hong Kong subsidiaries through substantial inter-affiliated relocation pricing.

② Payroll Processing

Payments can be made through employment contracts with anyone, including the CEO, and employees living abroad, regardless of whether they live in Hong Kong or not.

③ Processing Commission Payments

A certain amount of revenue can be processed as a basis for the Commission Payment Agreement.

④ Dividend Processing

A certain amount of revenue may be allocated by resolution of the Board of Directors, and the dividend tax is not taxable in Hong Kong, so there is no need to pay the tax on the dividend.

Business Range expected to be effective through Hong Kong Corporation

- ① An overseas corporation is engaged in trade transactions with China
- ② A large amount of commission remittances from overseas corporation
- ③ Investing in third countries including China and Vietnam
- ④ When there is no overseas corporation and you want transit trade through Hong Kong corporation
