Get To Know Jared

A veteran in headhunting, Jared started his career with PeopleSearch as one of the pioneer team members 22 years ago. He played a pivotal role in the setup of the Brand's first office in Taipei in 2000, followed by the Hong Kong office in 2006. Initially a specialized IT recruiter, Jared has since built up his strong network and expertise across a vast span of industries, including software and telecom, banking, insurance, asset management, healthcare, FMCG and Retail.

Jared's deep experience and knowledge of the industry enabled him to truly understand his clients and candidates' needs, gaining their trust. With 80% of his initial clientele base from 2006 still remaining as loyal clients of PeopleSearch Hong Kong today, this is a testament of the strong rapport Jared has with them, built upon his sincerity and strong work ethics. Leading 5 teams covering Private Banking & Wealth Management, Corporate Banking, Fintech, Information Technology, and Middle & Back Office Functions, Jared's teams are renowned market leaders in their industry, due to their professionalism and high quality of delivery.

Why Clients Love Jared

Truly passionate about his work, Jared is extremely prompt in answering to his clients' needs, regardless of place and time. Always delivering to his promises, Jared places his clients and candidates' interests as his top priority, matching only the ones with the best fit. His professional judgement are well-justified with his track record of successful placements and countless long-lasting, happy working relationships he has helped forged between candidates and clients over the years.

A man and a woman are sitting at a wooden table in a bright, modern office or cafe. The man, on the left, is wearing a dark suit jacket over a light-colored shirt and is holding a tablet. He is smiling and looking at the tablet. The woman, on the right, is wearing a black sleeveless top and is also smiling, looking at the tablet. She has her hand near her chin. The background shows large windows and a plant. A glass of water is on the table in the foreground.
