

Asia Pacific Properties : Scope of Work

Asia Pacific Properties is Asia's leading real estate and relocation company helping clients from corporations to individual executives to investors operate in – and out of – Asia. With its professional, bilingual staff, APP is committed to the highest standards of corporate governance and best business practices.

Founded in 1985, APP, headquartered in Hong Kong, has offices in Shanghai, Beijing and Guangzhou with independent partner offices in Australia, India, Indonesia, Japan, Malaysia, Philippines, Singapore, South Korea, Taiwan and Vietnam.

The company's relocation division, APP Mobility, focuses exclusively on helping multinational companies, start-ups and SMEs transfer and integrate staff in – and out of – the region.

By working under APP's one umbrella of services for all Asia-related property and relocation needs, clients gain greater cost savings, peace of mind and an exceptional experience – no small accomplishment today when moving across countries and continents.

The scope of APP's and APP Mobility's work includes:

- Commercial & Residential Real Estate Services: APP aligns its interests solely with clients whether in selecting properties, negotiating tenancy agreements, improving commercial-property use or enhancing property value through turn-key project management.
- Corporate Advisory Services: APP helps corporations expand in Hong Kong and China, offering a wide range of advisory services from office and factory set-up to mobility program development. Clients can be assured our independent consultants work in their best interests.
- Destination Services: This APP Mobility unit incorporates inbound relocation programs such as immigration, schooling, orientation, home search and settling-in with additional ongoing support including tenancy and expense management and cross-cultural training.
- Household Goods Move Management Services: This mobility unit moves household goods and personal effects through a network of highly qualified vendors. In close coordination with our immigration and real estate teams, it also ensures seamless delivery of the full range of relocation services.
- Asia Pacific Mobility Support: This mobility unit extends its reach regionally through partnerships with local real estate companies trained in the APP model of offering both property and relocation services. In this way, we take responsibility for a project and can attest that all related services are provided to the highest global standards.
