Dear Sir / Madam,

This letter serves to confirm our company's longstanding partnership between British American Tobacco with Connect HK Limited, which has consistently provided professional support to hundreds of our international assignees in both their apartment searches and school placements in Hong Kong for over twenty years, a service that continues today.

Connect HK Limited continue to be a valued partner that always delivers exemplary service to our employees.

Should you have any questions or require any further information regarding the longstanding partnership with Connect HK Limited, I would be more than happy to be contacted.

Yours truly
