

Sir Andrew Ross Bt

Director, Head of Fortunis Investments Ltd

Office: +44 208 012 8551

Email: andrew@fortuniscapital.co.uk

After graduating University, Sir Andrew has enjoyed a successful, varied and distinguished military career commanding on a number of global operations and international deployments as a Commissioned Officer. In 2018 Sir Andrew was appointed to Her Majesty's Body Guard of the Honourable Corps of Gentlemen at Arms.

Since leaving the British Royal Marines he has gained extensive experience in managing global security operations, involving the management of numerous sensitive security challenges. Sir Andrew has worked in some of the world's largest corporations including top 5 Fortune 500 companies and has developed an extensive knowledge of international business at the highest level. Areas of expertise include security risk management and the heavily regulated Health, Safety and Environmental setting.

Sir Andrew has had hands-on global experience creating and leading on a fundamentally new approach to the governance, risk management, assurance and awareness training of cyber security in a strategic digital change management programme.